NLPOA HISTORY

The National Latino Peace Officers Association is the largest Latino Law Enforcement Association in the USA.

Founded in the 1970's by two Latino Peace Officers who had a vision...John Parraz, Sacramento Sheriff's Office, and Vicente Calderon, California Highway Patrol. Both men used their personal time and money to organize and create what is known today as the "National Latino Peace Officers Association". Today the NLPOA has chapters from coast to coast

Regular membership is available to peace officers actively employed or retired from a position in the criminal justice system and support the NLPOA mission.

Associate membership is available to non-sworn persons who support the NLPOA mission and objectives.
